

ERIN GODDARD

Erin has been dancing for 16 years and has received training in Ballet, Pointe, Jazz, Tap, Lyrical, Hip Hop, Contemporary, and Musical Theatre. She received her certification from Dance Educators of America and teaches all ages and levels at Angelic Academy of Dance.

Erin was on the highest level of her competition team at Angelic Academy of Dance and earned numerous top score and first place awards. She was also a top scoring soloist at various competitions and took first place at “Stars of Tomorrow” two years in a row. She danced En Pointe in the youth cast of Moscow Ballet’s Great Russian Nutcracker for three years and has been involved in a variety of local performances including promotional videos for Marriott Hotels and plays around the Southwest Florida area.

Dancers and soloists working with Erin have gone on to achieve scholarships, top scores, platinum awards, and more. Erin teaches both instructional and competitive classes at Angelic Academy and loves sharing her passion for dance with others!
